THE HERALD.

JNO. P. BARRETT, Editor

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 1, 1857.

The Bracken Record has quit recording.

Congress will adjourn on the 15th instant, until the 10th of January.

Tobacco is selling in Paducah, now, at from $1.00 to $5.00.

There are twenty-seven candidates for Gubernatorial honors in Tennessee.

Governor Hendricks will not contest Wheeler's right to the Vice-Presidency, let Mr. Tilden do it as he may.

Governor Wm. Allen, of Ohio, rises to explain that he is not, and will not, be a candidate for United States Senator.

Vice-Chancellor Harlan, of Lewisville, will resign his position and take pointed criticism of the President's message, from the Evansville Courier:

The message of President Hayes is a carefully prepared document, containing all the questions that have been raised by friend or foe (except the fraudulent means by which he gained his office) since his inauguration. His views upon the subject of Civil Service Reform need no elaboration in this, his first published document. He has shown to the country that he believes in rewarding his friends and punishing his enemies, like other common mortals. His exposition of his ideas touching tenure-of-office does not place him above the rest of us in purity of motives. It indicates that he is tared with the same streak that has painted all the Presidents black from the beginning of our National history. It makes clear to the most casual observer that he who has made an effort for himself upon which to worship the disinterested partisanship of Hayes, must share his fate and come down to the level of ordinary people. There is no virtue in Rutherford that is not attended with the selfsame vice common to all men of mark that have ever made a career since creation dawned. It may fairly be said of him, we suppose, that he is no worse than his predecessors in this respect. His ideas of civil service reform are no worse than those of Tilden, and not greatly different from those that have been put in practice by every politician who has held office in this country since it took its place in the list of nations.

The President is again reported as in a dying condition. We have heard that report off and on nearly ever since we were old enough to remember, and the Pope still lives.

The Jeffersonian Democrat says: Dr. Luke P. Blackburn, of Louisville, will be a candidate for Governor of Kentucky, to succeed Gov. J. B. McCreary.

The President devotes a good deal of space in his message to monetary affairs, and it seems from a perusal of the extraordinary document, that he may be child-like, but he is not blind.

Hon. James P. Bates, of Bowling Green, died November the 30th. He was a distinguished gentleman and prominent lawyer and politician. He was seventy years of age.

The notes of the Saturday Evening Echo began to be heard round about Greenville, Madison County, Ky., on the first of December, 1857, where it proposed to be heard once a week, for the small sum of $1.50. It is a five column, four page paper, and Urey Woodson is hussing it. Success to you, neighbor.

Volume one, number one, Vick's Illustrated Monthly, is before us and we do not hesitate to pronounce it valuable, enterprising and instructive. It takes the place of Vick's Floral Guide which was published quarterly. The Monthly is finely illustrated and is put at the low price of $1.25 per annum, for single copy, and $1.00 per numm in clubs of five or more. Address, James Vick, Rochester, N.Y.

The House Silver Bill came up in the Senate last Thursday, and a motion was made to postpone it until next January, which was voted down by two to one. It was then set for action yesterday. It seems as though the majority of the Senate favor the dollar of our "dads," but if it passed yesterday, or does eventually pass the Senate, it is quite probable that the President will veto it.

Banks & Brothers, law publishers of New York city, advertise vol. 66, New York Court of Appeals, bound in the best law sheep, at $1.50. Here in Kentucky we have to pay $5.00 per volume for Bush's Reports. How long will this fraud be permitted to run. The office of Reporter of our Court of Appeals under the present arrangement, is worth $10,000 per annum. The State departments are under Democratic rule, and if this wrong is not corrected, the Democratic party is responsible for it. The next Legislature must look into this matter.

Base Ball Championship for 1857.

The Board of Directors of the National League Base Ball Club, have met and awarded the championship for 1857, to the Boston Club. We thought for awhile that the Centertown Club would get it, and the only thing that prevented it, was that foul ball bounding Sam Morton in the foot. Well, boys, go in on your muscle next year and clean the Boston claps out.

Mr. Jesse B. Kincheloe has been appointed deputy collector, in place of James W. Allison, by Mr. Stuart, the newly appointed collector for this district. It looks as though all of O.P. Johnson's appointees will be required to "walk the log." Mr. Allison has faithfully discharged the duties of the office, and we feel confident that his successor, Mr. Kincheloe, will also make an excellent officer.—Henderson Reptor.

Playa, the stronghold of the Turks, has at last fallen, and is now in the possession of the Russians. This virtually ends the war, unless Turkey gets help. The Turks have fought with a bravery and desperation rarely ever witnessed, but the Russians have outnumbered and overpowered them.

Easts has at last been admitted as a Senator from Louisiana. This makes Democratic Senators 35, Republicans 33, and Independents 1. Although they have kept him out two months, he got on final ballot 17 Republican votes.

Cal. O. P. Johnson, the outgoing Collector, has, during his term of office and residence among us, made himself most popular as an officer, citizen and gentleman. We trust that Col. Johnson will continue in Owensboro—Owensboro Messenger.

To Prevent and Cure Coughs and Colds.

A reliable remedy is necessary in every household. Parker's Ginger Tonic is just the medicine needed. It rashly cures coughs, colds, sore throat, bronchitis, and even consumption, it is used in time, by its powerful specific action on the stomach, kidneys, skin, liver, and mucous surface of the throat and lungs. In this natural way it removes the waste matters from the blood, builds up the tissue, invigorates the system against further attack, and permanently strengthens the organs of the throat, lungs, and other organs. It is a powerful invigorant, and affords just the help that the aged, the feeble, and the convalescent require, because it restores perfect digestion and enjoyment of the food, enlivens the blood, and removes the dormancy energies of the debilitated organs. It cures dyspepsia with its varied symptoms of headache, weariness, soft stools, bad taste in the mouth, constipation, liver complaint, palpitation of the heart, etc., and while it never creates nor creates any desire for stimulants, it diffuses warmth and vigor through the system, refreshes the appetite, soothes the nerves, banishes melancholy, and gives strength and elasticity to the worn out frame. Buy a $1.00 bottle from your druggist, J. Wayne Griffin, Hartford, Ky., and trial its extraordinary merits.

Owing to their warm and delightful climates their inhabitants grow sallow from torpid livers, indigionous and all diseases arising from a disordered stomach and bowels. They should of course at all times keep the liver active, and to our readers we would recommend Taber's Vegetable Liver Powder. Taken in time, will often save money and much suffering. Price 50 cents.

The Barkay.

It is a well established fact, that Taber's Barkay Pile Ointment will cure, if used according to directions. The Eucalyptus, Camphor, Asafoetida, commonly known as the Barkay, has been highly esteemed for many years, owing to the fact that it possesses virtues lying in the bitter principle called Eucalyptus. They certainly have as good an assortment of this goods as ever was seen in Hartford.

But the last one is not there,

Heav'ly thou art thy gentle whisper

Venus had been flirting with Adonis, and Adonis, ungallant youth, paid the little virgin buck, which made the maid Venus so ashamed of herself that she hid her face for a short time last Saturday evening, but she soon recovered her self-possession and again shamed the beauty of her bright countenance upon her.

When she did sit dashed behind the moon.

Train the Working Power.

It may be a very good thing for a boy to have a great deal of native talent, to be noted among his acquaintances as "a very smart boy—one who is sure to make his mark in the world." But it is still a dangerous thing. It is little curious we seldom hear of those remarkable boys in after life. They generally sink into very common people in the very best; others are spoiled by very injurious habits in after life. No boy however talented, will ever accomplish much whose working power is not well trained. In whatever line that work may be, he must apply himself with an intense purpose—a tireless industry.

Sir Robert Peel was not a boy of brilliant talents, and he doubtless owed his greatness more to his father's early training than anything else. He was early drilled in the art of extemporaneous speaking; and when he went to the parish church at Drayton he was called upon, in his turn, to repeat all he could remember of the sermon. At first this was very difficult, but by a steady perseverance he at last came to repeat nearly the whole sermon every Sabbath.

No doubt those who listened to his burning words in the halls of Parliament, and were astonished at his wonderful memory in recalling point after point used by his opponents, considered this a remarkable gift of nature.—Cultivator.

tribute of Respect.

While engaged in felling timber for building purposes, on the 16th of October, 1877, Gen. W. S. Spencer, Jr., was struck by a slab from a falling tree which badly bruised his shoulder, mangled his right knee, and then fell so galling across his body crushed his left leg between the knee and ankle. His sufferings were intense until Monday, the 29th, when death relieved him of his pains.

At a meeting of Peltville Masonic Lodge No. 357, of which he was a member, he convened October 29th, the under-signed were appointed a committee to draft resolutions in memory of our deceased brother. After due deliberation, they submitted the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Whereas, it has pleased the Supreme Grand Master to tithe our esteemed brother, General W. S. Spencer, from this to that all glorious Lodges;—and therefore be it Resolved, That we rejoice in the life of Bro. Spence; many of those noble qualities that adorn a Masonic Christian gentleman, who, as a neighbor was courteous and obliging; as a Christian was humble and faithful, willing at all times to lend a hand to good work; as a Mason abhorred his passions, acted upon the Supplicates; kept up a record of good report, won over at all times;—and further may that the Lodge in post up his name practicing the noble virtue of charity, during his whole life; as a brother and father was very tender in his afflictions.

Resolved, That the great temperature return in this vicinity is mainly due to his untiring energies.

Resolved, That we sympathize with his family in their bereavement and extend our condolences and promise the services contemplated by the Masonic fraternity.

Resolved, That these resolutions be recorded in the minutes of the Lodge; that a copy be furnished the family, and a copy be sent to the Hartford Herald, the Western Recorder, the Owensboro Examiner, the Owensboro Messenger and the Hawesville Philanthropist for publication.

Resolved, That the names of Jas. W. Spence, Peter Bauer, T. V. T. Baker, and the Committee.

FACTS FOR THE FARMERS.

It is worth while for all farmers, everywhere to remember that thorough culture is better than three mortgages on the farm.

That an offensive war against weeds is five times less expensive than a defensive one.

That good fences always pay better than a law suit with neighbors.

That hay is a great deal cheaper made in summer than purchased in winter.

That more stock perish from famine than founder.

That a horse who lays his ears back, and looks lightning when you approach, is vicious.

That scrippin' the feed on fattening hogs is a waste of grain.

That over-fed fowls won't lay eggs, thus educating children properly, is money lent at ten per cent.

That one evening spent at home in study, is more profitable than ten in lounging about saloons and taverns.

That cows should be milked regularly and clean.

That it is the duty of every man to take some good, reliable, enterprising paper, and pay for it promptly, as a matter of course.

Jas. Ayer's
Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once a agreeable, healthy, and festival for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon
restored to its original color, with the gloss and freshness of youth.

Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, which will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from these deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. It wanted merely for a little time to repair it.
